"GENEALOGY SERIES", with Sandy VanderMeer

Thursday, October 5th, 5:30 – 7:00 PM

October is designated as "Family History Month," and genealogists have adopted this month as their own. Sandy VanderMeer, of the Mountainside Restoration Committee, will be at the library for the first of a three part series entitled "Connect to Your History". This first program will be an introduction to Genealogy. Sandy will help you to identify your goals and show you how to use basic research methods to help shape your family tree. Other programs in the series will include accessing online resources, identifying additional research options and best practices for keeping your found records organized. Please register for this program by calling 908-760-0599 or by calling the library.

This program is free and open to the public and is sponsored by Arbor Terrace Mountainside.

SATURDAY MUSICAL GETAWAYS: "Gerard & Diane Barros: Halloween Show"

Saturday, October 14th, 2:00 to 3:00 PM

Gerard and Diane Barros, of "One Fine Tapestry: A Carol King Tribute" fame, return to the Library for a special fall-themed show. Gerard and Diane are a unique husband and wife / keyboard and guitar duo, specializing in 2-part harmonies. With an "old school duo" approach to playing instruments and singing live, this versatile pair of musicians provide great entertainment for children and adults. Their Halloween show is a fun mix of Halloween classics and "non-conventional" golden oldies related to Halloween traditions. They will be covering songs by such artists as the Classics IV ("Spooky"), Ella Fitzgerald, Juice Newton, Warren Zevon ("Werewolves of London"), Annie Lennox, Bobby "Boris" Pickett ("Monster Mash") and, of course, the Zombies. Please call the Library at 908-233-0115 to register.

Saturday Musical Getaways are sponsored by the Friends of the Mountainside Library.
